ANNOUNCEMENTS

BREED THEATER.

Continuing along the line of splendid achievements, the Breed Theater will offer for today and tomorrow only the powerful Edison dramatic masterpiece entitled in His Father's Steps. This is one of the finest dramas of the film now before the public and wins its way into the hearts of the public by its simple charm and perfect appointments. It is the story of an old doctor whose practice never extended beyond the limitations of his own home village and who by extreme diligence has succeeded in putting his son through college, expecting that he would take his father's practice and remain in the village. The son meets an influential woman of the city and she almost induces him to leave his home town, but his knowledge of his father's many sacrifices on his behalf makes him relinquish all and go to the father. This makes his sweetheart appreciate him all the more and she goes with him to the old home and finds her happiness in his presence.

AT THE AUDITORIUM.

The bill for the first half of this week in all that the management promised and is drawing good houses and, what is more, it is pleasing the people. The Kunitz family, who have been causing considerable comment and all agree that their novelty juggling and illusions are performed in a most finished style.

DAVIS THEATER.

Alma. Where do you live? The musical play which has an entire season's run at the Lyceum Theater, New York, will be seen at the Davis Theater, 100 South Main St., with Miss Mary Lathrop, William W. Williams, John Saunders and the original New York company. From a French farce, which has been translated into German and first produced in New York in that language, and which has been generally criticized for its broadness, George V. Hoberst, the well known American humorist, at the instigation of Joseph M. Weber of the famous firm of Weber & Fields, constructed a play which has a very pretty story and transforms a very naughty heroine into a very charming creature who even the most capricious of playgoers will not hesitate to applaud. Aside from Mr. Hoberst's work in creating an agreeable libretto, an excellent score has been provided by the French composer, Jean Briqueux, and the music of Alma is now being heard all over the land.

Rheumatism

Is A Constitutional Disease.

It manifests itself in local aches and pains, inflamed joints and stiff muscles, but it cannot be cured by local applications.

It requires constitutional treatment, and the best is a course of the great blood purifying and tonic medicine which corrects the acid condition of the blood and builds up the system.

Hood's Sarsaparilla

PUTNAM

That decision, it has been announced that the companies sent on tour this year will be composed of players of greater ability than has been the rule and such attractions as have been put on are to be presented, it is guaranteed, by casts that are to be sure to win the approval of the play-going public. Local towns that have been booked for appearance in this city.

Opening of the Term.

Woodstock academy is to open for the school year next Wednesday. Miss Grace Caldwell, of North Attleboro, Mass., has been secured as a science teacher.

All of the public schools in Putnam will open Tuesday of next week. The majority of the out of town teachers are expected to arrive here by Sunday.

Those who have not received entrance certificates will take the entrance examinations for Woodstock academy at Woodstock on Friday of this week.

Not Weary of Wireless.

The Putnam young man who was spoken of in Tuesday's Bulletin as advertising his wireless aerial for sale does not dispose of it for the reason assigned. Far from being tired of his experiments, he is about to continue his technical education away from home. His family, for architectural reasons, desires to dispense with the mast.

Postoffice Hours for Labor Day.

The following postoffice hours have been arranged for Labor day, Monday next: Office open from 9 a. m. to 12 m. and from 2 p. m. to 7 p. m. The money order and postal savings departments will be closed during the day. Mail delivery and collection by city carriers will be suspended for the day.

Mail Addressed to Physicians.

A person who happened to look over the list of advertised letters at the postoffice this week might expect that there was to be an influx of physicians to this city. The list follows: Dr. A. S. Higgins, Jr., Dr. L. L. Rainford, Dr. J. S. Sheldon, Dr. M. P. Mansfield, Dr. J. H. Churchill, Dr. A. A. Byron, Dr. G. O. Mowry, N. O'Connor, Allen Thomas, John Grant, Melvin E. Stark, T. N. Williams, Leonina Sambeson, Mrs. Margaret A. Dwyer, Miss Harriet N. Worrall, Mrs. Mary Gee, Miss Mary Durney. It is supposed that the persons addressed to the physicians have been misdirected.

New Postoffice Rules Displeasing.

Like all other first and second class offices in the country, Putnam is afflicted by the postoffice department order directing the suspension of Sunday business. The rural delivery has been accustomed to enjoy the privilege of having office service on Sundays will be obliged to do without it hereafter. The French composer, Jean Briqueux, and the music of Alma is now being heard all over the land.

Big Bills to Pay.

A meeting of the common council is to be held next Tuesday evening. It is not anticipated that there will be much other than routine business to transact. The bill for the month of August has become one of the important features of each regular session, inasmuch as the sewer construction contracts call for the expenditure of a large amount of money each month.

STONEMASONS AND BRICKLAYERS

In Demand to Work on Big Weave Shed at Attawaugan.

Stonemasons and bricklayers are being sought in Putnam and surrounding towns to work on the construction of the new weave shed being built at Attawaugan for the Attawaugan company. The new part of this mill is to be ready for the installation of machinery as early as possible this fall.

A Matter Which the Bishop Decides.

There has been some talk in Putnam this week of a plan to divide St. Mary's parish and erect another Catholic church in this city. Some of the members of the present parish say they can see no need for a division, although St. Mary's church is the religious home of nearly 5,000 people and one of the most important in Connecticut. The administration of the parish has always been so efficient as to eliminate any need of subdividing. It is probable that no change of the nature mentioned will be made for a long time.

The Parcells Post.

Apparently the parcells post is coming in spite of the fact that only a few years ago most of our statements were sure such a thing would be accompanied by anarchy.—Chicago Record-Herald.
